Services Offered by Environmental Health and Safety

General Safety and Industrial Hygiene

1. Inspection buildings and facilities annually
2. Conduct focus inspection for a specific hazard, process or area
3. Monitor and investigate accidents involving staff, faculty, students and visitors.
4. Develop and present training on
5. Develop and maintain policies and procedures in the safety manual
6. Conduct air monitoring for mold, arsenic, silica, lead, solvents and more
7. Evaluate industrial hygiene controls (e.g. local exhaust ventilation)
8. Perform noise surveys upon request
9. Assist department in developing procedures related to safety and industrial hygiene
10. Provide training in respiratory protection and perform respirator fit testing.
11. Investigate complaints involving mold, indoor air quality and other hazards
12. Establish health and safety metrics for the campus
13. Calibration of confined space gas meters
14. Support various committees and task forces related to safety including
   1. Safety Committee
   2. Radiation Safety Committee
   3. Biosafety Committee
   4. Campus Committee on the Environment
   5. Traffic and Parking Authority
   6. Wellness
   7. Personal Safety
   8. Incident Response Team
15. Conduct ergonomic review and training for computer workstations and other tasks
16. Develop online training programs related to safety and health
17. Act as liaison with various regulatory agencies including the Tennessee OSHA and the Tennessee Department of Environmental Conservation