

Africana Studies presents,
A Symposium on a new book,

Blacks in Tennessee: Past and Present

April 24th, Hodges Library Auditorium
4:00 - 6:00 pm, Reception to follow Symposium

Blacks in Tennessee: Past and Present provides a socio-historical review of education, economics, politics, banking, insurance, criminal justice, and health and medical care, from the Civil War to the 21st century, including a discussion of the current status of Africans as well as African Americans in Tennessee.

The following scholars will discuss their contributions to the book: Sekou Franklin, MTSU; Robert Norrell, UTK; Jerry Plummer, Austin Peay; Wornie Reed, UTK; and Moses Tesi, MTSU