Special notice about Linguistics 423:

Linguistics 423, required for all Linguistics majors and minors, will be offered Fall 2006. At this time, it has been scheduled for a time and place To Be Announced (TBA). A decision will be made about time and place before classes start Fall 2006. If you plan to take the course then (and it will probably not be offered again before 2008), please email the instructor, Bethany Dumas <dumasb@utk.edu>, and give her some information about your Fall 2006 class schedule. An effort will be made to schedule the course at a time when everyone who wants to take it can take it – but if that is not possible, then those who respond early will probably have an advantage. (The course will NOT be scheduled 2:30-3:20 MWF.)

Certificate in Linguistics

The Certificate in Linguistics program offers graduate students the opportunity to acquire a certificate of study in linguistics with 18 hours of course work. See our website or the graduate catalogue for more information. (Please note that no more than six credit hours accumulated before admission to the program can be counted toward the certificate.) For more information visit the Linguistics Program website at <http://www.utk.edu/linguistics>
