

N O C C A | Riverfront

DOWN RiVER

JURIED PRINTMAKING EXHIBITION

is being organized in connection with the 30th anniversary conference of the Southern Graphics Council. The conference will be held April 3 - 6, 2002 in New Orleans. Selected art high school student work will be exhibited at NOCCA Riverfront's Ken Kirschman Art Space.

CALENDAR:

entry deadline: February 15, 2002

juror's notification: February 25, 2002

exhibition: March 8 - April 19, 2002

opening reception: Saturday, April 6, 2002
(in conjunction with the Southern Graphics Conference Tour)

JUROR: Teresa Cole

Professor Teresa Cole teaches at Tulane University. She received her BFA at the Maryland Institute College of Art in Baltimore, Maryland, and her MFA from Cranbrook Academy of Art, Bloomfield, Michigan. She holds the Ellsworth Woodward Professorship in Art. Her work is exhibited nationally as well as internationally.

ELIGIBILITY:

Actual printmaking and/or book art works produced by 9th to 12th grade students enrolled in any art high school in the U.S.A. NO photography, reproductions, or digital works will be accepted.

FEES:

A $35 per school entry fee is required to cover the costs of publicity and the return shipping or artworks.

RULES OF ENTRY:

- Submissions must meet eligibility requirements.
- Only 15 pieces from each school will be accepted.
- Juring will be from actual art works only.
- All entries must be matted or mounted with rigid backboards.
- Each individual work of art must be clearly labeled with the student's information on the backside of artwork.
- All submissions must include an entry fee and a completed entry form sheet (includes school's pertinent contact and return address information).
- All entries must be shipped in sturdy reusable containers.

SEND art works, fees & forms to:

Attn: Visual Arts Department / Down RIVER
N O C C A | Riverfront
Ken Kirschman Artspace
2800 Chartes Street
New Orleans, LA 70117

(entries must be postmarked no later than February 15, 2002)