Application for Undergraduate Research Practicum in the Infant Development Research Center or Cross-Cultural Childhood Research Center

Name ______________________________ Semester Desired ___________________________

Major ______________________________ Year in school ___________________________

Intended graduation date _______________ Cumulative GPA ___________________________

Email Address _______________________ Phone Number _____________________________

List any classes you have taken that are relevant to infant and child development research:
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Why do you want to be involved in cross-cultural child development research or infant development research?
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

What qualities do you possess that would make you a good candidate for an undergraduate research assistant? (e.g., computer skills, quantitative abilities, child development knowledge)
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

If selected, what days and times would you be able to participate in research opportunities?

_____ Monday Mornings _____ Monday Afternoons
_____ Tuesday Mornings _____ Tuesday Afternoons
_____ Wednesday Mornings _____ Wednesday Afternoons
_____ Thursday Mornings _____ Thursday Afternoons
_____ Friday Mornings _____ Friday Afternoons

Any additional comments:

Please return to Dr. Wass via e-mail: twass@utk.edu