

UT International Literary Colloquy – Fall 2007

Three Books Focusing on India

Your Invitation to Join!

In support of UT's READY FOR THE WORLD International and Intercultural Awareness Initiative, the Center for International Education seeks participants in its Fall 2007 International Literary Colloquy. Over its eleven years, the ILC has engaged hundreds of UT students, faculty and staff in exploring cultural themes in books written by or about various world societies. The fall semester's ILC concentrates on India.

Sixty ILC spaces will be available this fall semester and the UT community is invited to apply. Each participant will be provided with copies of the three books and is expected to participate in all three book discussions and thematic luncheons. This semester's three books are all set in India. Experts on the included themes will facilitate the discussions which take place during three Wednesdays or Thursdays from 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM at the International House.

Wednesday,
September 26,

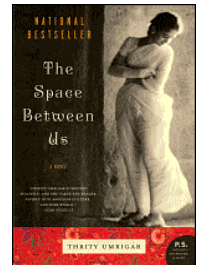

or

Thursday,
September 27

The Space Between Us by Thrity Umrigar

Harper Collins paperback, ISBN 006079156X

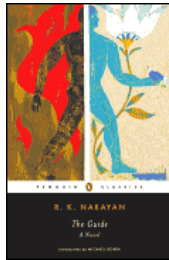

Dr. JW Boyd, Emeritus University Distinguished Scholar in Philosophy, Colorado State University, and Dr. Sue Ellen Charlton, Professor of Political Science, Colorado State University, will lead the discussion.

Wednesday,
October 24,

or

Thursday,
October 25

The Guide by R.K. Narayan

Penguin Classics paperback, ISBN 0143039644

Dr. James L. Fitzgerald, Distinguished Professor of Sanskrit, Department of Classics, Brown University, will lead our discussion.

Wednesday,
November 14,

or

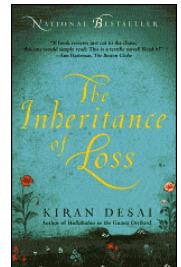

Thursday,
November 15

The Inheritance of Loss by Kiran Desai

– 2006 winner of the Man Booker Prize –

Grove/Atlantic, Inc. paperback, ISBN 0802142818

Dr. Bharat Mehra, Assistant Professor in UT's School of Information Sciences, will lead the discussion.

Interested? Apply now.

If you wish to be considered for participation in the Fall 2007 ILC, either pick up an application form at the front desk of the UT International House or send an e-mail message to Mr. Lee Rhea at <rhea@utk.edu> requesting one. Also, direct any questions about the ILC to Lee Rhea at 974-4453 or via the above e-mail address.

Applications must be received by Tuesday, September 4th, 2007. Applicants are expected to commit to participation in all three Wednesday or Thursday luncheon discussions.