MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
HANBAT NATIONAL UNIVERSITY, DAEJEON, REPUBLIC OF KOREA
AND
THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE, KNOXVILLE, U.S.A.

PURPOSE

In order to increase international understanding and awareness on our respective campuses, the Hanbat National University, Daejeon in the Republic of Korea and the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in the United States of America agree to collaborate with each other in a variety of areas, including the exchange of non-enrolling students, the exchange of faculty members and collaboration on research.

EXCHANGE OF NON-ENROLLING STUDENTS

Hanbat and Tennessee will facilitate short-term exchanges of students, singly or in groups, between the two institutions as agreed by the coordinators. The host institution will not enroll students of the other institution but will facilitate arrangements for appropriate educational activities and accommodations. Any academic credit which may be awarded to students under this agreement is the responsibility of the home institution. Exchanged students must, throughout the exchange period, maintain levels of insurance coverage as mandated by the regulations of the host university or the laws and regulations of the host government.

EXCHANGE OF FACULTY MEMBERS

Hanbat and Tennessee will facilitate the short-term exchange of faculty members, singly or in groups, between the two institutions as agreed by the coordinators. The host institution will facilitate arrangements for appropriate activities and accommodations. Each institution will maintain the salaries and benefits of its own teaching staff during such exchanges. Exchanged faculty members must, throughout the exchange period, maintain levels of insurance coverage as mandated by the regulations of the host university or the laws and regulations of the host government.

RESEARCH COLLABORATION

Hanbat and Tennessee will encourage collaboration on research between the two institutions as agreed by the coordinators.

SELECTION OF PARTICIPANTS

Each institution's agreement coordinator will screen its nominees for participation in the exchange and will forward those nominations to the other institution's coordinator. The host institution reserves the right to make final judgment.
COORDINATORS

Coordinators will be named by each institution to ensure that the terms of specific agreement to be developed by two academic programs of both institutions are carried out. Further, all activities conducted under the auspices of this exchange program must have the endorsement of the coordinators.

RENEWAL, TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

This agreement shall remain in force for a period of five years from the date of the last signature, with the understanding that it may be terminated by either party giving notice to the other party in writing no later than the end of March in any year. The agreement may be extended by mutual consent of the two parties.

Any amendment to the agreement may be made by the exchange of letters between the two parties.

In witness thereof, the parties have offered their signatures hereto:

LINKAGE AGREEMENT
BETWEEN
DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL AND MANAGEMENT ENGINEERING OF HANBAT NATIONAL UNIVERSITY, REPUBLIC OF KOREA
AND
DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL AND INFORMATION ENGINEERING OF
THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE, KNOXVILLE, U.S.A.

PURPOSE

In order to increase international understanding and awareness on our respective campuses, the Department of Industrial and Management Engineering of Hanbat National University in the Republic of Korea and the Department of Industrial and Information Engineering of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in the United States of America agree to collaborate with each other in a variety of areas, including the exchange of non-enrolling students, the exchange of faculty members and collaboration on research. This is an amendment of the Memorandum Of Understanding (MOU) between Hanbat National University and the University of Tennessee.

EXCHANGE OF NON-ENROLLING STUDENTS

The two departments of Hanbat and Tennessee will facilitate short-term exchanges of students, singly or in groups, between the two departments as agreed by the coordinators. The host institution will not enroll students of the other institution but will facilitate arrangements for appropriate educational activities and accommodations. Any academic credit which may be awarded to students under the MOU agreement between the two universities is the responsibility of the home institution. Exchanged students must, throughout the exchange period, maintain levels of insurance coverage as mandated by the regulations of the host university or the laws and regulations of the host government.

EXCHANGE OF FACULTY MEMBERS

The two departments of Hanbat and Tennessee will facilitate the short-term exchange of faculty members, singly or in groups, between the two institutions as agreed by the coordinators. The host institution will facilitate arrangements for appropriate activities and accommodations. Each institution will maintain the salaries and benefits of its own teaching staff during such exchanges. Exchanged faculty members must, throughout the exchange period, maintain levels of insurance coverage as mandated by the regulations of the host university or the laws and regulations of the host government.

RESEARCH COLLABORATION

Hanbat and Tennessee will encourage collaboration on research between the two institutions as agreed by the coordinators.

SELECTION OF PARTICIPANTS

Each department’s agreement coordinator will screen its nominees for participation in the exchange and will forward those nominations to the other institution’s coordinator. The host institution reserves the right to make final judgment.
COORDINATORS

Coordinators will be named by each institution to ensure that the terms of this agreement are carried out. Further, all activities conducted under the auspices of this exchange program must have the endorsement of the coordinators. At Tennessee the coordinator will be Dr. Dongjoon Kong of the Department of Industrial and Information Engineering. At Hanbat University the coordinator will be Dr. Joon Mook Lim of the Department of Industrial and Management Engineering. Coordinators will notify their counterparts should a new person be named to the position.

EVALUATION

Each institution shall annually evaluate the linkage agreement and its activities, and write a report.

RENEWAL, TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

This agreement shall remain in force for a period of five years from the date of the last signature, with the understanding that it may be terminated by either party giving notice to the other party in writing no later than the end of March in any year.
