About the language you want to study and previous language experience:

Why are you interested in studying this language? How is the language related to your major?

Was it spoken in the household in which you grew up? If not, what language was spoken?

Did you attend local schools where the language was spoken when growing up? If yes, which grade did you finish?

Did you study the language in the US before? Where and how many years did you study?

What other languages do you know? (Indicate how long and where it was studied.)

Student Contract Form ver. 2014

*Submit both Application and Contract form to the director, Mahagi LaCure, 710 McClung Tower. Failure to do so could result in being dropped from the course. ****

On the NASILP homepage I have watched Text, Tape and Tutor (30 minutes), an instructional video on how the program works.

NASILP (National Association of Self-Instructional Language Programs) homepage: <http://www.nasilp.net> login: Tutor, password: Libya06
Click "Member Resources" and look under "Video Resources". You will see other old but still very useful videos also.

I understand and accept that the nature and demands of modified self-instructional language program are very different from those of traditional language courses, and that studying _____ (language) _____ (course number) will require a great deal of time, energy, self-direction, and self-discipline. Furthermore, I understand and accept that the text, audio materials and tutor will be my only resources, and my success is dependent upon my own commitment to study the language in the modified self-instructional format.

I also understand and accept the following:

1. I will also watch another video "What did the Student Learn?" in order to prepare myself for oral exams.
2. I will be penalized for missing more than 2 classes.
3. My preparedness for class and performance in class will be evaluated daily by the tutor and reported to the director. I have access to this record so that I know how I am doing.
4. My final oral exam will be arranged according to the availability of the examiner. The examiner is most likely a professor at a non-UT university and the exam could be conducted using Skype. I agree to make myself available for the final oral exam at a date and time to be set in cooperation with the examiner. I understand that this may involve an appointment before or after the University's regular finals week.
5. The final course grade will be based on: (1) final oral exam given by the examiner, (2) written midterm and final exam, (3) weekly quiz scores, and (4) attendance.
6. It is my responsibility to drop this course should I decide to do so, and I will notify the director as soon as possible.
