I have watched the interview “What does it takes to be a NASILP student?” on the NASILP homepage.

I understand and accept that the nature and demands of a self-instructional language program are very different from those of traditional language courses, and that studying _____ (language) _____ (course number) will require a great deal of time, energy, self-direction, and self-discipline. Furthermore, I understand and accept that the text, tapes/audio materials and tutor will be my only resources, and my success is dependent upon my own commitment to study the language in the modified self-instructional format.

I also understand and accept the following:

1. Once I am registered, I will watch “Text, Tape and Tutor” on Blackboard (permission for streaming pending), an instructional video on how the program works. It will be beneficial to watch it again in mid semester.
2. I will also watch another video “What did the Student Learn?” in order to prepare myself for oral exams.
3. I will be penalized for missing more than 3 classes.
4. My preparedness for class and performance in class will be evaluated daily by tutor and reported to the director. I have access to this record so that I know how I am doing.
5. My final oral exam will be arranged according to the availability of the examiner. I agree to make myself available for the final oral exam at a date and time to be set in cooperation with the examiner. I understand that this may involve an appointment before or after the University’s regular finals week.
6. The final course grade will be based on: (1) final oral exam given by the examiner, (2) written exam (in some cases both midterm and final), (3) quiz scores, and (4) attendance.
7. It is my responsibility to drop this course should I decide to do so, and I will notify the director as soon as possible.
