

SPRING 2009

THE "CHINESE MENU" COURSE

Psych 510: TOPICS IN ADVANCED PSYCHOANALYTIC
THEORY AND TECHNIQUE
(3 credits)

INSTRUCTIONS:

- pick any TWO modules. You have six to choose from.
 - By December 5 send Nash an e-mail (mnash@utk.edu) telling him which two you want.
 - You can pick more than two, but make sure you have time.
-

1) CLINICAL HYPNOSIS SUPERVISION

- Who: Nash
- Arrangements: One hour every two weeks supervision of clinical hypnosis. Learn how to do it. Practice on each other; work with patients in the clinic.

2) WHAT TO DO IF CHARGED WITH AN ETHICAL VIOLATION

- Who: Jack Barlow
- Arrangements: 3 hours total, TBA

3) FRIDAY WITH FREUD

- Who: Nash organizes with help from Erin Gray
- Arrangements: Faculty and students meet at faculty house 3 consecutive Friday nights to watch BBC mini-series on Freud's life....eat food.....wash down with liquid.

4) PSYCHOANALYSIS IN THE EMERGENCY ROOM

- Who: Chris Nicholas, Lina Schlachter, Nicole Wolf, and Christen Mullane
- Arrangements: Faculty and students meet three times for ninety minutes. Discuss cases. Medical staff, pastoral care, and others will also attend.

5) THE CLINICAL MASTERS SERIES: SELF-STUDY

- Who: Yourself
- Arrangements: Use our digital library of 50 workshops done by psychoanalytic and non-analytic luminaries. you pick a workshop or two, watch it, and write a one or two paragraph summary which will be affixed to the DVD cover. (e.g., Kernberg, Karon, Spiegel, Blatt, Elgan Baker, Morris Eagle, James Mann, Erika Fromm, Robert Langs, Ted Millon, Victor Frankel).

6) FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGY

- Who: Bruce Seidner
- Arrangements: Three class 90-minute meetings during the semester. The module considers the fundamental diagnostic and adjudicative questions for adolescents and adults. It is the Sermon on the Mount versus Leviticus. What are the legal standards? How do psychologists evaluate competence? What's it like testifying in court? Kaplan's "Farewell to Childhood," and Winnicott's writings figure prominently.