

SUMMER CAMPUS DINING CONTRACT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- A. The student agrees that if attending the University of Tennessee for Summer session and a Meal Plan or Dining Dollars plan is selected, he/she will make purchases in dining facilities for the entire period of the contract.
- B. Summer Meal Plans and Dining Dollars will be valid from the first day of summer classes through the last day of summer classes for the term(s) the student is enrolled. Students only enrolled for one term may not use their Meals or Dining Dollars in any other term.
- C. The Meal Plan or Dining Dollars contract covers the entire session or term selected. Meals and Dining Dollars will not roll over from Summer to Fall semester. Meals and Dining Dollars are forfeited if the student leaves the University or moves out of University Housing. For periods of sickness or hospitalization, a refund will be granted for only those meals missed in excess of 15 consecutive meals with medical verification.
- E. Whenever possible, UT Campus Dining will assist students having special dietary needs upon receipt of a letter or dietary plan from the student's physician. Refunds or reduced rates cannot be made because of special dietary requirements.
- F. The student assumes responsibility for assuring Meals and Dining Dollars validation each term. Failure to pay fees or use the Meal Plan or Dining Dollars does not constitute a release from the dining portion of the Housing/Dining contract with the university.
- G. Meals and Dining Dollars cannot be shared or transferred to another student.
- H. Students that live in selected fraternity housing may qualify for tax exemption status.
- I. All off-campus students that sign up for meal plans must pay applicable state and local sales tax.
